What Shall I Wear Today?

Author: Natasha Sharma
Illustrator: Tanvi Choudhury

Do you get the feeling sometimes that none of your clothes are just right? I do!

The shirt buttons trouble me.
The pants feel too tight on me.

The lehenga seems to trip me.
The choli does not fit me.

My salwar keeps slipping.
The golden zari keeps itching.

The churidaar pulls and tugs everywhere.
Nothing perfect seems to be there.

This frock is too bright.
Brother's T-shirt? What a funny sight!

Papa's kurta is rather long.
Mummy's sari is wrapped all wrong.
Some things are well out of my reach. Oh, it really makes me want to screech!

These clothes seem to say, ‘We shall trouble you all day.’
But I have made up my mind today...

... to mix and match these clothes in a way that I have my very own style today!
